

THE NEW ARRIVAL

The little girl gets up,
gets out of bed.
She looks for her mother.
"Where are You"?, she said.

She looks in the blankets
and under the bed.
She goes down the stairs
and gets herself fed.

Then she gets the good news
where her mother is now,
She's up in the hospital
with a little baby boy.

She had a new brother
while she was asleep.
He's up with his mother,
being put to sleep.

She goes up and sees him.
He's so very small.
He makes her feel lonely,
since she was still small.

She goes up and hugs him
and kissed him and all.
He smiles back
as if to say "Hi".

Then she goes home.
And makes him a bed.
She puts him to sleep.
And gets him "Big Ted".

By: Maedhbh Boyle.

MY MESSY ROOM

When I go to bed at night,
My room looks very tidy.
But I decide to mess it up.
I take a book-
Don't like the name-
Throw it on the floor.
I start to play - get fed up
Don't care to tidy up.
Feeling tired - go to bed.
Feel too hot -
Kick blankets off the bed.
Wake up in the morning.
Have to tidy it all up.

By: Fiona Brophy

IRELAND

Ireland is a country.
Its a very small one too.
It has lots of counties,
And belongs to me and you.

Galway is a county.
Its in Ireland --- see,
So is Cork and Donegal,
Antrim and Kerry.

Dingle is in Kerry,
And so is Tralee.
In Northern Ireland,
There's Down and Derry.

By: Nicola Wilkins.

MY MOTHER

Everyday when I come home
My mother is at the sink.
I see the water go down the pipe.
Mom says, "where's the milk"?

My Mom is always asking.
Sometimes she never stops.
Then I eat up my dinner,
And go for her to the shop.

By: Tara Shaughnessy.

HOMEWORK

I hate homework,
It takes me so long.
By the time I have it done,
Zig and Zag are gone.

I Hate homework,
It is such a bore.
Sir keeps giving us
more and more and more.

Mum is always on about it,
"Have you got it done"?
Just when I am in the middle
Of having so much fun.

The person who invented it,
Is such a terrible pain.
He deserves to be punished
by Mr. Keane.

By: Ailbhe McLaughlin.