

IV CLASS:

A SURPRISE

MY FATHER

My father is a very nice man.
He does for me all that he can.
Being nice isn't all one way.
I get his slippers every day.

By: Breda Shaughnessy.

SHOES

My mother has a pair of shoes,
So beautiful on me.
I want to wear mother's shoes,
But they're too big for me.

By: Anne-Marie Birkett.

MY LITTLE BIRD

I have a little bird,
That sleeps in a tree,
And when I wake up,
He sits on me.

When I sit down,
He sits on my knee.
When I stand up,
He plays with me.

I walk in the forest,
With my bird each day.
We hide behind trees,
And play in the clay.

By: Michelle Glynn

MY PET CAT

She is white and black,
And very, very fat.
She walks up and down the garden
Sniffing as she goes along.
The cats come and tease her,
But it does not surprise her,
She chases and chases them,
Round and round the garden,
And off they go very sad indeed,
Because she knew all along that they were looking for her food.

By: Hazel Noone.

I have a Teddy; his name is Ted.
His brother's name is Eddie.
And they each have a bed.

One night as I was sleeping,
I was woken with a start,
I heard the sound of bleeping,
I wondered what it was.

It was twelve o' clock,
Midnight I think.
The bleeping had stopped,
I heard the toast pop,
Its morning, its bright,
It was all a dream.

Ed. and Ted were on the ground.
I picked them up without a sound.
Mum was watching from the door,
"Get up", she said,
"You're on the floor".

By: Aoife Canney.

BIRDS

Some fly high, some fly low.
Some say goodbye,
To the rain and the snow.
Some are black, some are white.
Some have a dangerous bite,
But now they are gone.
They are gone.

By: Sheena Noone.

HURLING

IN THE NET.
I've scored a goal,
A brilliant goal,
A spectacular goal,
A super goal,
WHAT A GOAL !!
And we've won.
I'm a champion,
I lift the cup,
I am so proud,
And listen,
There goes the crowd.

By: Brian Kerrigan.