

IV CLASS

KNOCK KNOCK:

My best friend ? A hungry Polar bear ?
Its crawling down the stair.
Will I open the door ? Will I dare ?
Its only my sister.
Andrea Lacey

What a bore !
Its time for School

Muiriosa NicChumhaill

A hungry cat on the midnight stair.
A greedy fox after a hare.
I don't think I really care.

Andrea Lally

Is it a mouse or is it a hare ?
A lion or a bear ?
Is it a bat or is it a cat ?
Its only Mum on the mat.

Amy Charles

A rich king on a golden chair?
Or the turtles from the sewer lair ?
No. Its only my sister.

Fahad Ansari.

My grandmother in her rocking chair ?
Father Callinan saying his prayers ?

Perhaps its a ghost
Now I'm creeping down the stairs
I'm all alone. Its not fair.
I'm at the door. Will I dare ?
Its only Dad. What a scare !

TEENAGE MUTANT HERO TURTLES

I watch this cartoon each morning when I wake
Its about four turtles who lived in a lake.
Then they became affected by mutagen slime
and they grew ten times their size
and now live in a sewer den.
The Boss is Master Splinter
and he's afraid of cats
He gave them names from men he admired
Leonardo is a leader, Donatello an inventor
Michaelangelo and Raphael make jokes which make Leonardo hot
Their favourite food is pizza which Michaelangelo admires the most
They all met a news reporter
who works around the coast
There is the evil Shreddar
Who's leader's name is Krang
The turtles' job is to save the city
from this terrible gang.

Fahad Ansari.

PEOPLE

Some are tall, some are small
Some grumpy, some lumpy.
Some are fat and some are skinny
like my father who can drive a Mini.

Edel Coffey.

BEING OLD

My Gran has a kind and cheerful face
a few wrinkles here and there of course
She has lots of brown curly hair.
blue eyes and a snub little nose.
She walks in a most peculiar manner
she half walks and half hops
and it is rather a funny sight
when you see her doing it all over the place.
My Gran speaks clear and very calmly
and ever ready to sit and chat
Her sparkling eyes and glowing smile
She is kind and caring
and always willing to lend a hand
She likes to travel far and wide
By bus, train, air or sea
She is as busy as a bee.

Jennifer O'Higgins.

DAD:

Merry old fellow even when he's mad.
Jolly old fellow. He's our Dad.
He fixes things and helps us
that's his job
He watches all comedies
but hates Henrys Cobbs
He watches soccer all the time and Super Bowl until the midnight chimes.

Teacher please
Don't give us more.

PEOPLE

There are people both big and small
People short and tall
People generous and mean
People who are fat
People who are lean.
Some are happy, some are sad
Others are good, some are bad
People read and write
others argue and fight.
Some can walk, some are lame
So you see we are not all the same.
