

III CLASS

The fairy tree.

The people next door have a fairy tree.
It has hundred's of doors.
One hundred, two hundred, three hundred,
Four - oh! I can't count them all.

I dance and sing around the fairy tree.
For my little friends.
They drink Acornade and Bluebell wine,
And pansy Beer for the little men.
They play in Daisy Park and work in Dandelion field.

By: Sharon Long.

My Puppy.

I have a puppy.
His name is spot.
He likes to jump.
And play hop scotch.
He wags his tail.
So small and white.
He is my favourite puppy alright.

By: Lisa Lambe.

My Dog.

My dog is called Kim.
And he is white and brown.
And in the night we cuddle up.
And in the morning he has a shower.
And when I go to school.
I get kind of bored.
And when I go I come home.
I'm really glad to see him.
And play with him.

By: Aoife Holland.

Late one night I got a fright.
While taking off my slippers.
I thought I saw a slimy thing.
With two heads and four flippers.

I ran into my parents room.
And waked up my Dad.
I said I thought I'd seen something.
Which really scared me bad.

My dad sat up and woke my mum.
And told her to go with me.
He said he was too tired.
It's probably something silly.

We sneaked into my bedroom.
And mum turned on the light.
She stood back and let me see.
What had caused my fright.

My swimming togs my swimming hat.
And my flippers too.
Hed fallen from my swimming bag.
And that is when I knew.

The Bath Tub.

When I get in to the tub at night "It's cold".
I look back at mam she says "don't be hold".
I scrub and scrub and scrub,
Until the foam flows out of the tub.
Until at last I pull the stopper,
And fill the bath with Mr. Proper.
I smile at last when I rest my head.
And cuddle up in the lovely hot bed.

By: Colm McGowan

Ice-cream.

Ice-cream, ice-cream.
Doesn't it look good.
Should I try some?
Yes I should.

Raspberry, bananas, vanilla and fudge.
These are the flavours that I love.

It makes my tongue cold.
And gives me a pain in my head.
That's why I don't eat it,
Before I go to bed.

By: Roseanne Kearney.

That what had given me a fright.
Was really quite a funny sight.
Mum picked them up, she laughed and said,
Come on Gordon, it's time for bed.

By: Gordon Howard.